How in SEAMEO's Practice?

Future University-Sharing MOOCs

- 1 Networking inter countries, universities, faculties
- 2 Cross cutting material, lecture , mix student, mix country
- 3 Industry need involved

For universities to survive and thrive, they will need to build significantly deeper relationships with industry in the coming decade

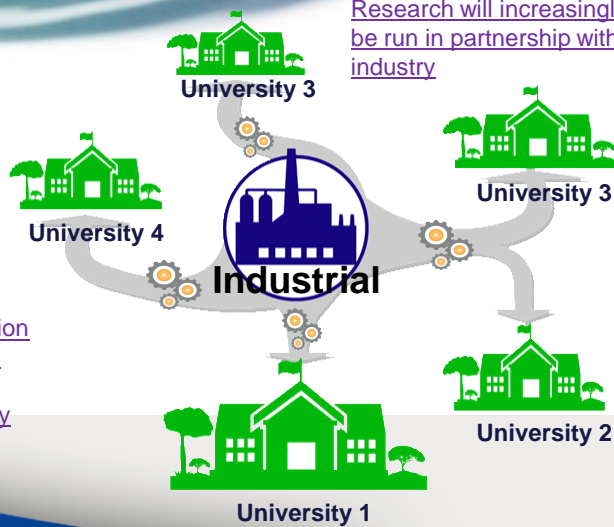

Industry based learning and internships

MOOCs from industry

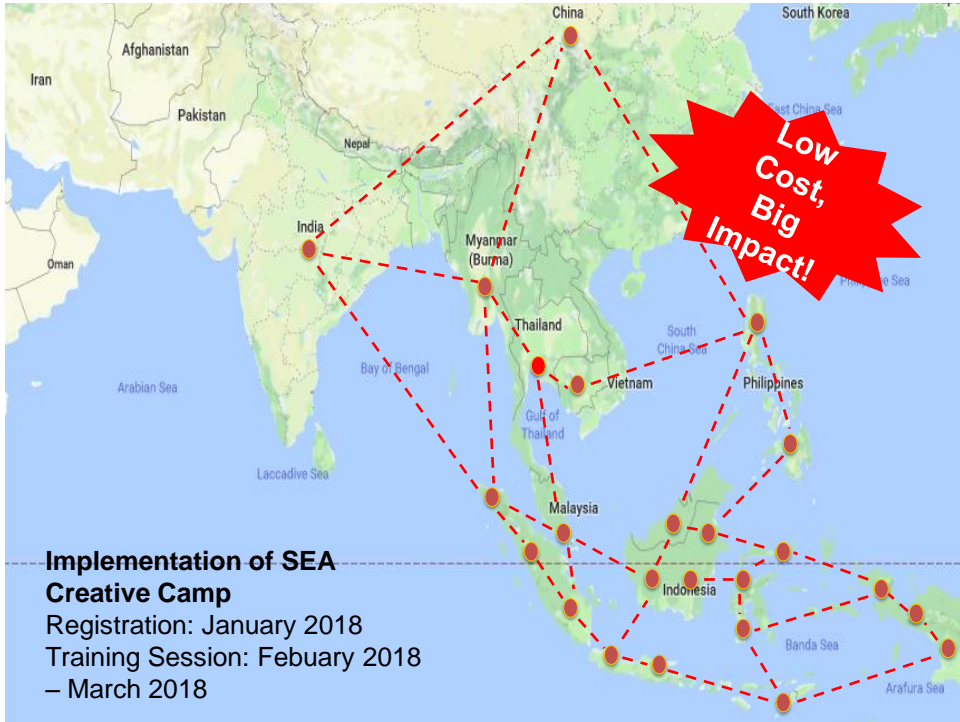

Lecturer from industry

Research commercialization will go from being a fringe activity to being a core source of funding for many universities' research programs.

Research higher degree programs and applied Research will increasingly be run in partnership with industry
